Are you attending the reunion?

No, I cannot make it

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc

Married, just dropped daughter off at SUNY Oswego for her first college semester. Another fork in the road reached...

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

Been working in the defense industry continuously since 1983.

Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?

Earned AA general degree at Suffolk, went to Stonybrook to add to it for a BA, but changed my mind after a few months and returned to Suffolk for an AAS in electronics to start my career path as a development tech. Continued school at nights and eventually earned my BS while advancing to a senior engineer position.

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

Not even on the same planet !!!

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visted?

Too many to list in US, Western & Eastern Caribbean cruises, family vacations in Mexico and Costa Rica.

Send us a current photo or two (or an old one, we are not picky!)

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc

Married Steve Lutzky 1980; son Stephen born 1983.
Loss of my sister, Cathy, in 2003 after a 3-year battle with cancer, changed my outlook on life. I don't waste time nor do i take a single day for granted.
Travelled through England, Italy and Wales, and spent time in Cannes and Barcelona as well some US cities. Loved Shakespeare's home and was moved by Stonehenge. Also enjoy cruising and going to the theater.

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

Currently VP for Resident Services at Peconic Landing, a 400-resident senior living community in Greenport where i have worked for the past 20 years. Came onboard before the community was built and was instrumental in forming the programs and culture. Peconic Landing has earned several Innovation of the Year awards under my tenure.

Earned MBA and became a certified in Aging Services Specialist. Was recognized as Professional of the Year in NYS by industry organization Leading Age.

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

I was never a planner as a young person -- something that has changed dramatically as i creep my way toward 60! My life has evolved and i'm lucky it's taken a good and successful path. I think that is due to some simple life philosophies: take the road you choose with gusto and full force; maintain your values and do the right thing; and try to make even a small difference everyday to give your life purpose.

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc

Spent some years in southern and northern California with my first jobs and moved back in 1993 to be closer to family. Married for 24 years to a fellow CA geologist - our vacations often center around rocks. Collectively we hike, bike, fish, clam, run, take care of the family compound and our menagerie of creatures, and otherwise try to keep all the balls in the air.

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

Worked for 6 years in petroleum exploration and production in Alaska and California and then transitioned into environmental work, which is where my heart is. Have been working for the past 27 years doing environmental investigations and cleanups at oil refineries, Superfund sites, landfills, etc. - much better to clean it up than make more of a mess! Took a partial retirement several years ago to have more time to help with our last remaining parent.

What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?

Trying to collect samples of illegal fill on a property owned by some uncooperative folks. It took 12 County Sheriffs armed with shotguns to get us onsite and provide protection while we got the job done.

Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?

Have developed an interest in local history since returning to Long Island - this has led to taking positions at our local historical society and our Landmarks & Historic Districts Board. Researching and documenting local historic homes has become a thriving hobby.

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

Always thought I would end up doing hands-on science, but did not think it would bring me back to LI!

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?

Alaska!

What are your best memories from high school?

Fun with friends, academic competition.

What are your best memories after high school?

Continued evolution of interests, opportunities to travel

Tell us an interesting piece of news, story or memories about a fellow classmate

Linda Underwood is not lost! She is now Linda Burns and lives in Mattituck. Her sister, Robin, is trying to persuade her to attend the reunion!

What are some of your favorite songs, movies and activities back in school, do you still enjoy them now?

Participated in music activities (band, chorus, piano, etc.) in school, but dropped these interests for 30 years to take care of career, home, etc. When I took the partial retirement I found more time and went back to music - this time with the bagpipes! I now play with a local pipe and drum band and have a great time learning music again!

Tell us anything else that is on your mind.

Wish I could take part in the reunion - had a good time at a previous one - but will be away during the reunion.

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc

Moved from NY to Indianapolis, where I was a warehouse manager. Moved to another company, and met my future wife by phone (she worked in Denver office). We talked for 3 months by phone, decided to get married, then I went to Denver to meet her. We married 3 months later.

Then moved back to NY for 3 years, then off to Iowa in 1986 where we have been ever since.

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

Worked as a warehouse manager for several years, then went to computer school at Grumman Tech, then began programming for a living. After working for others for several years, began working for myself and started my company in 1989. I did programming and consulting for 28 years.

About 10 years ago, I bought the rights and formulas from one of my customers that closed their doors, and we changed careers. We no manufacture and ship skin cream around the country. The biggest seller is called "Original Udder Balm"... awesome stuff!

What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?

My shortest job was a brief stint at Chubby's Seafood... I was fired after 45 minutes because I did not know how to sort live clams from dead ones...

Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?

Change 1 - Went from a warehouse manager to a Purchasing Agent.
Change 2 - Went from Purchasing agent to Computer Programmer.
Change 3 - Went from Computer Programmer/Consultant to Skin Cream Manufacturer.
Change 4 - Still not sure what that will be

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

I thought I would be rich by the time I was 30.... but still working on it.

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?

The beaches in the Hamptons of course, and lots of places in the US including the rocky shorelines of Maine, the Great Lakes, Las Vegas, Hoover Dam, NYC, Chicago, Seattle, Denver, Minneapolis, Atlanta, Dallas, Devils Tower WY, where Custer made his last stand at the Little Big Horn, the Badlands, Wall Drug, Yellowstone National Park, the memorial for the Oklahoma City bombing, the Smokie Mountains, Gatlinburg TN, the Rocky Mountains, and many other great places. Still have lots more to visit!

Who would you really like to see at the reunion that you have not seen in a long time?

If I say, I might jinx it

What are your best memories from high school?

All of them... best group of friends ever. Only wish that I had stayed on LI, but if I did I might not appreciate it as much as I do

What are your best memories after high school?

My wife, my kids, my grand kids... and travel all over the place...

What are some of your favorite songs, movies and activities back in school, do you still enjoy them now?

All the good stuff from the 70's still listen to it all the time.. Eagles, Styx, Stones, Skynard, Zeppelin, Floyd, Aerosmith, Fleetwood Mac, Beatles, Elton John, Tull, ZZ Top, and on and on and on...

Who was your high school "secret" crush?

Janet

Who was your high school "everybody knew it" crush?

Ho-Ho

Tell us anything else that is on your mind.

Love these get togethers every few years... great memories, and building additional friendships with old classmates!

Send us a current photo or two (or an old one, we are not picky!)

Married Ray Ceruti 7-10-1977, divorced in 2003.
Married James "Kimo" Rowell 6-24-2004. He died 2-2-2006.
Married Dennis Kingwell 8-11-2007.
Two daughters, Laura b. 1982 and Carolyn b. 1985. Laura has two boys, Alex b. 2004 and Anthony b. 2009.

I love to travel, especially to tropical places when the weather on Long Island is foul. I've been to the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and St. Lucia. Any place with good snorkeling! I've driven down to Florida and from Minnesota to LI.

When I'm home, I'm usually working. But when I'm not, I'm at the beach or in my yard working on my gardens.

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

I own my business, Spectral Resolutions, since 2000. I provide bookkeeping and small business support for clients, and I am assistant manager for a condo.

I'm Recording Secretary for the Chamber of Commerce of the Moriches.

I sing Alto 1-B with the East End Women's Choir. We sing amazing things, frequently a capella, and in 6 or more parts.

I was bookkeeper/office manager for Teri Seidman Interiors from 1986 - 2002.

I was a church organist/choir director for 25 years - St. Paul AME Zion, Christ Church in Sag Harbor, Bel AME Zion in Center Moriches, Center Moriches Methodist, Beach Methodist in WHB. I got tired of practicing for weekly performance.

What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?

I've had rather unexciting jobs, but necessary ones.

Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?

I totally gave up working for other people and started my own business.

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

Back then, I didn't have a clue!

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?

Besides some glorious tropical places, the most interesting have been the organ chambers of various churches. St. Ignacious Loyola in NYC is massive. Sag Harbor Whaler's Church still has the hand-pumped bellows to power the organ. The Episcopal Church in Westbury has its pipes horizontally under the floor.

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc	I have been married three times--divorced once, and widowed twice (most recently in the past year). I have three children and two stepchildren. I am blessed to have five grandchildren, and am very excited to welcome a new grandbaby in February 2018! We moved to Pennsylvania in 2009. I am happy to say that as of this past June, all three of my children now live in PA too. My stepdaughter and her family plan on moving to PA within the next two years, so I am one happy and busy Mom/Grandma!
Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc	I have been working the last 8 years for Audio Professional Hearing Centers. I am the office manager for our three locations.
What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?	I guess I would have to say my seasonal job at Kid Stuff in Riverhead. Playing with toys and children that came in was fun.
How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?	I always thought I would be raising a family, although I never thought in high school I would be living in Pennsylvania. Losing two wonderful husbands was never in my plans either. I've gone through some difficult times and am thankful I have gotten (or am getting) through them with the help of family and good friends. It's been a blessing to have lifelong friends in my life.
What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?	I've never had the pleasure of traveling out of the country. My last husband loved to drive, so we took a road trip to visit my children in El Paso, Texas two years ago. It was great traveling through the different states and seeing all of the different scenery.

Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc

My life changed back in 1985 when I lost my brother. I worked everyday with him and my dad. After Jimmy passed, my parents moved to Arizona leaving me behind to stumble on my own. I divorced twice and had a son, Kyle Fillippo at 30 yrs. old. He is my world. He is special needs, I have lived with him longer than anyone else ever, including my parents. In 1996 I moved out to Arizona to be with my parents. I had a hay harvesting business for 20 years. This allowed me a great life with Kyle. When he was small, he would fit on the floors of the different equipment I was driving to play and sleep.

As you may remember, Jimmy and I raced go-carts for our teen years. We had so much fun traveling and meeting new people. So in 2007 when Dodge came out with the chargers, I bought a SRT8 Plum Crazy Purple. My dad bought one as well. We started drag racing them together. Then we had to go faster and faster.... Now we are both at 1000 hp in our little grocery getters. They are the ultimate rush.

I don't get to travel much but I plan on doing so when I retire.

Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc

The only thing I have done is work to provide for me and my son. Doing what I had to, to put a roof over our heads. Nothing special.

I have worked in a trucking company office, employment offices, raising horses, driving all kinds of tractors and now the schools.

What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?

I would say harvesting hay is an unusual job especially for a female. But I love driving just listening to music.

Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?

Now I am working in an elementary school being the lunch lady and crossing guard. One day I plan on driving a school bus.

How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?

I thought I would have a husband to share my life with, but I guess I am too independent.

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?

I just loved Maui. Would love to retire there. The Columbia River is just beautiful also. I miss walking on the beach. Some Day!

Who would you really like to see at the reunion that you have not seen in a long time?

Sue Scopinich

What are your best memories from high school?

Going to the Beach with the girls.

What are your best memories after high school?

I took a girls trip to Puerto Rico. Having wine & cheese on the beach with a burro. lol

What are some of your favorite songs, movies and activities back in school, do you still enjoy them now?

Racing....Yes the need for speed.

Who was your high school "secret" crush?

Sorry Faith. Brett Jayne

Who was your high school "everybody knew it" crush?

Billy Baird

Tell us anything else that is on your mind.

I really wish I could make it to this reunion. I have been looking forward to it. I will try really hard for 45.

Send us a current photo or two (or an old one, we are not picky!)

How many miles will you travel to get to the reunion?	310
Tell us the highlights of your life since high school, including family, travel hobbies, etc	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- I graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1981 and served in the Army in Germany.- In 1987, I married Arthur Green (a soldier) and went back to Germany for another 5 years, where I worked for the American Red Cross.- In 1992, we were stationed in southern Virginia, where we raised our family and lived for 25+ years (and still have a house)- My husband and I have two daughters, Adriana and Alyssa, a step-son Avery (who is now in the Army), and raised two nieces, Angie and Tina (who I consider my daughters). I volunteered with the school system and was a Girl Scout leader (even brought my troop to New York City!)- My husband retired from the Army in 1995, but we both continued to work in Virginia. My husband passed away in 2009.- I have two 12 yr old granddaughters, one near Seattle and the other in Michigan, and two grandsons (2 and 5), who are in southern Virginia.- I travelled extensively in Europe and have gone on some wonderful hiking trips in the UK. I continue to hike and scull on the Potomac River in the DC area, and am still an avid reader.
Tell us about your work and career highlights, and special awards or projects, etc	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- I served on Active Duty in the Army from 1981 to 1985, followed by the Army Reserves through 2007, when I retired from the military.- For 8 years I worked for the American Red Cross serving the military (in Germany and then in Virginia).- After serving an active duty tour in Virginia for three years, I was hired as a Department of the Army civilian in 2004, which is my current occupation.- I'm currently working as a Strategic Planner for the Army.
What has been your funniest or most unusual occupation or job?	Definitely not the funniest, but the most unusual is running a military mortuary in Germany for a year while deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom-something I never, ever would have thought I'd be doing! It was certainly a challenge, but also had it's own rewards.
Have you made major career changes in your life? What are they?	My latest change was when I was selected to attend the Army War College (as a government civilian). I had to agree to serve anywhere the Army wanted to send me after graduation. Fortunately, I ended up in the Pentagon and am enjoying living and working in DC.
How similar or different is your life now, compared to what you thought it would be back in high school?	Definitely ended up on a different path than I ever would have expected!

What are some of the most interesting places you have seen or visited?

My favorites are small, gorgeous European alpine villages where I skied for many years while living in Germany.

Hiking Hadrian's Wall across the UK was one of my favorite trips, with unbelievable vistas, huge cliffs, and lovely pastures.

Because I was stationed in Germany for 9 years (four different tours), I had the amazing opportunity to see so many wonderful places in Europe, from the big cities (Paris, London, etc.) to small villages in places like the Black Forest and Bavaria.

While on military duty in Korea, I was able to take a trip to the North Korean border, plus travel to the mountains where my father fought in the Korean War.

Who would you really like to see at the reunion that you have not seen in a long time?

My friend Francie Campbell Netzer most of all, but I'd also love to see all my classmates and old friends from other classes- really! It's just so nice to see people you care about after all these years.

What are your best memories from high school?

While I so enjoyed all the activities, especially sports, chorus, band, etc., it's the people and the friendships that stand out the most. Girl Scouts, bus trips to away games, skiing with friends and family at Okemo, and sailing on the bay are some of my favorite memories- some skinny dipping, too!

What are your best memories after high school?

Army training (like jumping out of airplanes) and all the travel I did while in Europe was pretty memorable, but the best memories are of family and friends. Watching our kids grow up (and now grandkids!), was and still is an amazing journey, to include memories of babies learning to walk, trips to the beach and the mountains, our furry family members (which we had a lot of!), and visiting family. Watching Lynne's and my naked toddlers playing together at the beach in Maine- priceless!

Tell us an interesting piece of news, story or memories about a fellow classmate

When Lynne's son, Sean, was a baby, he was so confused when he saw me (someone who looked like his mom, but wasn't!), that he just ignored me for years!

One of my all time favorite memories is of Susie Jenkins responding to someone giving her the finger while canoeing. She immediately lost her temper, and stood up in the canoe while cursing at the top of her lungs, as the boat went tipping over... Susie has the biggest heart and a wonderful sense of humor!

What are some of your favorite songs, movies and activities back in school, do you still enjoy them now?

It might have been right after graduation, but watching the Rocky Horror Picture Show was such fun!

Tell us anything else that is on your mind.

I am so grateful to all our wonderful classmates who put all the time and effort into making this reunion happen!!

Send us a current photo or two (or an old one, we are not picky!)
